SARAH NETBURN, United States Magistrate Judge:

Pursuant to the Court's Order, the defendants have established a Defendants' Executive Committee (the "DEC") to facilitate the efficient and speedy resolution of this case. Accordingly, the Court appoints the following people to serve on the DEC:

Joseph DiGregorio, Esq.
Barry, McTiernan & Moore

Nancy L. Pennie, Esq.
Aaronson, Rappaport, Feinstein & Deutsch, LLP

David Goodearl, Esq.
Leader, Berkon, Colao & Silverstein

Carol M. Tempesta, Esq.
Foley Mansfield

Timothy M. McCann, Esq.
Hawkins, Parnell & Young, LLP

Kevin Turbert, Esq.
Husch Blackwell

While the Court recognizes that some discovery and legal issues may be specific to certain sub-groups or even individual defendants, the Court prefers that the DEC serve as the primary representative of the defendants' interests with respect to discovery and motion practice. Accordingly, Plaintiff is directed to negotiate with the DEC for purposes of establishing discovery deadlines, developing protocols, and negotiating discovery, where possible. The DEC shall represent the defendants in communications with the Court, where possible.

The Plaintiff and the DEC are reminded of their obligation to meet and confer to discuss discovery, settlement, and scheduling. By June 16, 2023, the parties shall file a joint letter proposing a case management schedule.

SO ORDERED.
